Museums with this symbol participate in our Print & Go Program. These passes can be printed from home, at the library or from any local printer. They are good for only the one day of the reservation and do not need to be returned.

Pick-up Passes are physical passes that are checked out at the library with your library card. They must be picked up from and returned to the Tredyffrin Public Library or Paoli Library circulation desk. These passes check out for 3 days total (pickup day, one full day, return day).

Do not return passes in a bookdrop.
